SUMMARY

This amendment replaces the bill. It establishes a comment period so that the public may offer comments on the wording and content of ballot questions for any initiative that will appear on the ballot in accordance with the procedure for citizen-initiated measures. The amendment requires the Secretary of State to propose a question for the initiative within 10 business days of adjournment of the legislative session. That proposed question will be posted on the publicly accessible website of the Secretary of State along with notice of a public comment period. The notice may also be published in newspapers with general statewide circulation. No later than 10 days after receiving public comments, the Secretary of State shall write the question to appear on the ballot.

This amendment also makes changes to provisions of law that have been rendered inconsistent by the November 2006 passage of a Constitutional Amendment regarding when petitions for citizen initiatives are due to municipalities for signature verification.
