Fiscal Detail and Notes

The General Purpose Aid for Local Schools program within the Department of Education will require ongoing General Fund appropriations of $2,084,033 per year beginning in fiscal year 2012-13 to provide eligible local school administrative units with an adjustment for economically disadvantaged students. This estimate was prepared by the Department of Education based on available data. The total cost of this provision will depend on the actual number of school administrative units determined to be eligible for this adjustment each school year.
