This amendment replaces sections of Committee Amendment "A" regarding sports wagering with new license eligibility criteria, license fees, license terms, percentage of taxes on adjusted gross sports wagering receipts, facility-specific tax rates, non-tribal entity mobile operator specific tax rates and tribal entity mobile operator specific tax rates. Changes to licensing eligibility and terms will decrease General Fund revenue by an estimated $41,000 in fiscal year 2022-23, but shorter license terms will increase General Fund license revenue by $3,750 in fiscal year 2023-24 and by $1,219,750 in fiscal year 2024-25. The changes to specific tax rates on facilities, non-tribal mobile operators and tribal mobile operators entities will result in Other Special Revenue Funds revenue increases of $155,251 beginning in fiscal year 2022-23. The amendment does not change the staffing requirements of the Gambling Control Unit or other provisions related to the appropriations and allocations contained in Committee Amendment "A."
