5	HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
6	130TH LEGISLATURE
7	SECOND REGULAR SESSION
8 9	HOUSE AMENDMENT " to H.P. 275, L.D. 391, "An Act To Amend the Laws Regarding Marine Resources"
10	Amend the bill by striking out the title and substituting the following:
11	'An Act To Reestablish the Maine Lobster Marketing Collaborative'
12	Amend the bill by inserting after the title and before the enacting clause the following:
13 14	'Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and
15 16 17	Whereas, Public Law 2021, chapter 58 extended the repeal date of the law that established the Maine Lobster Marketing Collaborative from October 1, 2021 to October 1, 2026; and
18 19	Whereas, because Public Law 2021, chapter 58 took effect October 18, 2021, the law that established the Maine Lobster Marketing Collaborative was repealed; and
20 21 22 23	Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,'
24 25	Amend the bill by striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting the following:
26	'Sec. 1. 5 MRSA §12004-H, sub-§14-A is enacted to read:

30	This subsection is repealed December 31, 2026.
31	Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §6455-A is enacted to read:
32	§6455-A. Maine Lobster Marketing Collaborative
33	1. Collaborative established; purpose. The Maine Lobster Marketing Collaborative, established in Title 5, section 12004-H, subsection 14-A and referred to in this subchanter

1	as "the collaborative," is created to promote and market actively Maine lobsters in state,
2	regional, national and international markets. The collaborative shall draw upon the
3	expertise of the Maine lobster industry and established private marketing firms to identify
4	market areas that will provide the greatest return on the investments made by lobster license
5	holders and undertake those media or promotional efforts that represent the most cost-
6	effective use of a limited promotional budget. The collaborative shall remain responsive to
7	the Maine lobster industry, conduct its business in a public manner and undertake
8	marketing efforts that promote the quality and full utilization of the product and the unique
9	character of the coastal Maine lobster fishery.
10	2. Collaborative is a public instrumentality. The collaborative is established as a
11	public instrumentality serving a public purpose. Accordingly:
12	A Employees of the collaborative may not be construed to be state employees for any

- A. Employees of the collaborative may not be construed to be state employees for any purpose, including the state civil service provisions of Title 5, Part 2 and Title 5, chapter 372 and the state retirement system provisions of Title 5, Part 20;
- B. The collaborative may not be construed to be a state agency for any purposes, including the budget, accounts and control, auditing, purchasing or other provisions of Title 5, Part 4; and
- C. Notwithstanding any provisions of paragraphs A and B:
 - (1) All meetings and records of the collaborative are subject to the provisions of Title 1, chapter 13, subchapter 1, except as provided in subsection 3. The commissioner and those members of the Legislature appointed to serve on the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over marine resources matters have access to all material designated confidential by the collaborative;
 - (2) Members of the collaborative are governed by the conflict of interest provisions set forth in Title 5, section 18; and
 - (3) For the purposes of the Maine Tort Claims Act, the collaborative is a "governmental entity" and its employees are "employees" as those terms are defined in Title 14, section 8102.
- 3. Market studies and promotional plans; proprietary information. Information provided to or developed by the collaborative and included in a promotional plan or market study is public unless the collaborative determines that it contains proprietary information. For the purposes of this subsection, "proprietary information" means information that is a trade secret or production, commercial or financial information the disclosure of which would impair the competitive position of the collaborative or the person submitting the information and would make available information not otherwise publicly available.
- 4. Collaborative members; appointments; terms. The collaborative consists of 11 voting members, 9 appointed by the commissioner as follows:
 - A. Four individuals representing the lobster management policy councils established pursuant to section 6447. Each lobster management policy council shall prepare a list of up to 3 nominees from its zone for consideration by the commissioner for the appointments under this paragraph. In making appointments under this paragraph, the commissioner shall select members to ensure a geographic distribution of representation from lobster management zones established pursuant to section 6446;

1	B. Three individuals:
2	(1) At least 2 of whom are owners, managers or officers of business entities
3	operating in the State that hold valid wholesale seafood licenses with lobster
4	permits, from a list of nominees prepared for the commissioner by the Lobster
5	Advisory Council established under section 6462-A; and
6	(2) At least one of whom represents the interests of lobster dealers and processors
7	and
8	C. Two individuals who are public members with experience in marketing and
9	promotion, retail sales, food service or food science, from a list of nominees prepared
10	for the commissioner by the Lobster Advisory Council established under section
11	6462-A.
12	Members are appointed by the commissioner for terms of 3 years. A person may not serve
13	more than 2 consecutive 3-year terms as a member of the collaborative.
14	The commissioner or the commissioner's designee serves as an ex officio member of the
15	collaborative. The Commissioner of Economic and Community Development or the
16	commissioner's designee serves as an ex officio member of the collaborative.
17	5. Officers. By majority vote, the collaborative shall annually elect a chair from among
18	its members and may elect other officers in accordance with its bylaws.
19	6. Executive committee. The collaborative shall establish an executive committee or
20	no fewer than 5 members, who are appointed by a majority vote of the collaborative. The
21	collaborative shall specify in its bylaws when the executive committee may act on behalf
22	of the collaborative with regard to oversight of collaborative staff, daily operations of the
23	collaborative and addressing unexpected expenditures to be made by the collaborative. The
24 25	bylaws must specify what constitutes a quorum of the executive committee and how many
23 26	votes are necessary for the executive committee to take a valid action. In addition to any other restrictions adopted by the collaborative, the executive committee may not act or
27	behalf of the collaborative to:
28	A. Adopt or amend an annual budget;
29	•
	B. Adopt or amend an annual marketing plan;
30	C. Hire or terminate the employment of the executive director of the collaborative; or
31	D. Amend the bylaws of the collaborative.
32	7. Meetings. The collaborative shall meet at least quarterly. A quorum of 6 members
33	is required to conduct the business of the collaborative. Additional meetings may be called
34	by the chair. If 3 or more members of the collaborative submit to the chair a written reques
35	for a meeting, the chair shall call a meeting to be held no sooner than 14 days after receipt of the written request. The commissioner may remove any member with unexcused
36 37	absences from 2 or more consecutive meetings of the collaborative.
38 39	8. Employees. The collaborative shall hire an executive director and may hire staff as needed to perform its duties. Employees of the collaborative serve at the pleasure of the
10	collaborative. The salary and benefits for employees of the collaborative are determined by oring or any or a line summing and contents for outployees of the conductative are determined by

1 2	F. Surcharges for supplemental wholesale seafood licenses with lobster permits or supplemental lobster transportation licenses are as follows:
3 4	(1) For up to 2 supplemental wholesale seafood licenses with lobster permits or supplemental lobster transportation licenses, the surcharge is $1,800;
5 6	(2) For 3 to 5 supplemental wholesale seafood licenses with lobster permits or supplemental lobster transportation licenses, the surcharge is $2,400; and
7 8	(3) For 6 or more supplemental wholesale seafood licenses with lobster permits or supplemental lobster transportation licenses, the surcharge is $3,000.
9 10 11	G. For a lobster processor license, the surcharge is $1,000 if less than 1,000,000 pounds of raw product is processed and $4,000 if 1,000,000 pounds or more of raw product is processed.
12 13 14 15	A person holding more than one of the following licenses is assessed only the highest applicable surcharge for those licenses under this subsection: a wholesale seafood license with a lobster permit, a supplemental wholesale seafood license with a lobster permit, a lobster transportation license or a supplemental lobster transportation license.
16 17 18 19	The commissioner shall review annually the surcharges established in this subsection and recommend changes to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over marine resources matters, which after receiving the recommendations may report out a bill to the Legislature to adjust the surcharges.
20 21 22	The Treasurer of State shall hold all surcharges assessed by this subsection in the fund and invest all money in the fund until disbursed to the collaborative upon request of the collaborative. Interest from investments accrues to the fund.
23 24 25	All money in the fund is subject to allocation by the Legislature. Unexpended balances in the fund at the end of the fiscal year may not lapse but must be carried forward to be used for the same purposes.
26 27 28 29 30 31	In addition to payment of the regular license fee and the surcharge, a person purchasing a license subject to the surcharges established in this subsection may make voluntary contributions to the fund at the time the license is purchased. Voluntary contributions received by the department from a licensee pursuant to this subsection or any other source must be deposited in the fund by the department and must be used by the collaborative for the purposes of this subchapter.
32 33 34 35 36 37	12. Reports. The collaborative shall report annually on its activities and expenditures to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over marine resources matters, to the Lobster Advisory Council established under section 6462-A and, at a statewide meeting of interested license holders, to the lobster industry. The collaborative shall provide notice of the date and location of the statewide meeting of license holders at the time of license issuance or renewal.
38 39 40 41	13. Audit. An annual audit of the expenditures of the collaborative must be performed. The collaborative may contract with the Office of the State Auditor or with a private sector accounting firm to conduct the audit. The collaborative shall report the results of that audit to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over marine resources
