1 scallops if the commissioner determines that scallop resources are sufficient to permit 2 the issuance of new licenses; and

3 E. The Penobscot Nation may not issue more than 8 commercial licenses for the 4 taking of elvers in any calendar year, except that the commissioner shall by rule allow 5 the Penobscot Nation to issue additional commercial licenses for the taking of elvers 6 if the commissioner determines that elver resources are sufficient to permit the 7 issuance of new licenses.

8 The Passamaquoddy Tribe, Penobscot Nation and Department of Marine Resources shall 9 report on the status of the sea urchin, scallop and elver fisheries to the joint standing 10 committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over marine resources matters by 11 January 15th of each even-numbered year.

12 Rules adopted pursuant to this subsection are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, 13 chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.'

14 SUMMARY

15 This amendment changes the title of the bill and clarifies that the Passamaquoddy
16 Tribe and the Penobscot Nation each may issue up to 24 lobster and crab fishing licenses 17 annually to their members.

18 The amendment also provides that the Penobscot Nation may issue commercial sea 19 urchin licenses to its members when the sea urchin resource recovers and new entry is 20 allowed in the fishery. As specified by the Commissioner of Marine Resources in rule, 21 the Penobscot Nation may issue 20 or fewer commercial scallop licenses in a calendar 22 year and additional commercial scallop licenses if the scallop fishery opens to new entry 23 and 8 or fewer commercial elver licenses in a calendar year and additional commercial 24 elver licenses if the commercial elver fishery opens to new entry.

25 The amendment also requires the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation and 26 the Department of Marine Resources to report on the status of sea urchin, scallop and 27 elver fisheries to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over 28 marine resources matters by January 15th of each even-numbered year.
