3 CHAPTER 1049

4 FAMILY MEDIATION RESOURCE PROGRAM

5 §3681. Definitions

6 As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms
7 have the following meanings.

8 1. Family. "Family" means a parent and a minor child.

9 2. Parent. "Parent" means a parent, custodian or person responsible for the child as 10 those terms are defined in section 4002.

11 3. Program. "Program" means the family mediation resource program established by 12 the department in accordance with this subchapter.

13 §3682. Family mediation resource program established

14 The department shall establish and implement a family mediation resource program to 15 support communication and conflict resolution between parents and children as an 16 alternative to mental health services or the court system. The program must meet the 17 following requirements.

18 1. Eligibility. A family self-referred or referred by a school counselor, school official,
19 law enforcement officer, prosecutor or juvenile court judge may be eligible for the program
20 or may be eligible according to other criteria established by the department in rule.

21 2. Collaboration. The program must connect a family eligible for the program under 22 subsection 1 to applicable resources, including but not limited to community-based 23 providers, who will work collaboratively with parents and children to solve disputes and 24 support the needs of the family.

25 3. Individualized services. The program must provide individualized services or 26 referrals to services based on the needs of the family eligible for the program under 27 subsection 1.

28 4. Rules. The department may adopt rules to develop and implement this program.
29 Rules adopted pursuant to this subchapter are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5,
30 chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.

31 Sec. 2. Rulemaking. The Department of Health and Human Services shall adopt
32 rules to develop and implement the program established in the Maine Revised Statutes,
33 Title 22, section 3682 no later than October 1, 2021. Rules adopted pursuant to this section
34 are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.
