SUMMARY

This amendment is a report of the committee. It changes the description of the property exempt from seizure and forfeiture to include United States currency totaling not more than $100 and a motor vehicle of less than $1,000 in market value. It states that the district attorney is required to advise which publications law enforcement agencies may use to establish the value of a motor vehicle in the district attorney's jurisdiction. It states that a district attorney may establish higher values of exempt properties if the interests of justice and efficient use of governmental resources are served in the jurisdiction based on the district attorney's determination of the type and number of occurrences of offenses that include the seizure of property and average value of forfeited property less the costs to seize and forfeit it.
