Amend the bill by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or section number to read consecutively.

SUMMARY

This amendment makes the new crime of intentionally interfering by force, violence or intimidation with a public official who is in fact performing or who the person believes is performing an official function relating to a federal, state or municipal election a Class D crime, rather than a Class C crime as proposed in the bill. It also clarifies that the public officials the new law is designed to protect include election officials, municipal clerks and registrars of voters.

The amendment also directs the Secretary of State to develop, by rule, a process for reporting election-related threats to or harassment of public officials and to annually report the number and type of the reports received by the Secretary of State during the previous calendar year to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over
