SUMMARY

This amendment strikes the committee amendment, except for the substitute title, and instead provides:

1. Ongoing funding to the Department of Corrections, County Jails Operation Fund program of $3,000,000, of which $1,700,000 must be spent on community corrections as specified in statute;

2. Funding for the Kennebec County Criminogenic Addiction Recovery Academy program; and

3. One-time funding of $3,000,000 to the Department of Corrections, County Jails Operation Fund program to reimburse county and regional jails in specified amounts for unusually high costs incurred by those jails during fiscal year 2017-18 and to provide a source of funds for such costs incurred in fiscal year 2018-19 that are in excess of the amounts budgeted.

It also requires the State Controller to transfer $3,000,000 from available balances in Department of Professional and Financial Regulation accounts, as determined by the Commissioner of Professional and Financial Regulation, to the General Fund.
