

33 §1601-108. SUPPLEMENTAL GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF LAW APPLICABLE

33 §1601-108. SUPPLEMENTAL GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF LAW APPLICABLE

The principles of law and equity, including the law of corporations and unincorporated associations, the law of real property and the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, eminent domain, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, receivership, substantial performance or other validated or invalidating cause supplement the provisions of this Act, except to the extent inconsistent with this Act. [1981, c. 699, (NEW).]

No consent or joinder of the spouse of a unit owner shall be required for any action of the unit owner required or permitted under this Act, except that in a case of a conveyance or transfer of a unit, the law of Maine relating to the rights of a spouse in real estate shall apply to such conveyance or transfer. [1981, c. 699, (NEW).]

1981, c. 699, (NEW).

The State of Maine claims a copyright in its codified statutes. If you intend to republish this material, we require that you include the following disclaimer in your publication:

All copyrights and other rights to statutory text are reserved by the State of Maine. The text included in this publication reflects changes made through the First Special Session of the 124th Legislature, and is current through December 31, 2009, but is subject to change without notice. It is a version that has not been officially certified by the Secretary of State. Refer to the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated and supplements for certified text.

The Office of the Revisor of Statutes also requests that you send us one copy of any statutory publication you may produce. Our goal is not to restrict publishing activity, but to keep track of who is publishing what, to identify any needless duplication and to preserve the State's copyright rights.

PLEASE NOTE: The Revisor's Office cannot perform research for or provide legal advice or interpretation of Maine law to the public. If you need legal assistance, please contact a qualified attorney.
