

§379. Sales above fixed price; unlicensed sales; gifts

No person may sell a ticket or share at a price greater than that fixed by rule of the commission. No person other than a licensed lottery sales agent may sell lottery tickets or shares, except that nothing in this section prevents any person from giving lottery tickets or shares to another as a gift. [PL 1987, c. 505, §2 (NEW).]

Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit a person from transferring tickets or shares as part of a sales promotion provided the promotion has been approved in advance by the commission or director pursuant to rules adopted under section 374, subsection 1, paragraph H. [PL 1991, c. 683, §2 (NEW).]

Any person who violates this section commits a civil violation for which a forfeiture of not more than $200 may be adjudged. [PL 1987, c. 505, §2 (NEW).]
