

§2066. When stored-value obligation presumed abandoned

1. Presumed abandoned after 3 years. Subject to section 2070, the net obligation value of a stored-value obligation is presumed abandoned on the latest of 3 years after:

A. December 31st of the year in which the obligation is issued or additional funds are deposited into it; [PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

B. The most recent indication of interest in the obligation by the apparent owner; and [PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

C. A verification or review of the balance by or on behalf of the apparent owner. [PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

[PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

2. Amount presumed abandoned. The amount presumed abandoned in a stored-value obligation is the net obligation value at the time it is presumed abandoned.

[PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

3. No period of limitation, limited charges or fees; exceptions, disclosure. Notwithstanding section 2112, fees, charges or a period of limitation may not be imposed on stored-value obligations, except that the issuer may charge a transaction fee for the initial issuance and for each occurrence of adding value to an existing stored-value obligation. These fees must be disclosed in a separate writing prior to the initial issuance or referenced on the stored-value obligation. Fee restrictions do not apply to any stored-value obligation that enables the holder to transfer the underlying funds to multiple unaffiliated merchants at the merchants' point-of-sale terminals or online or at an automated teller machine.

[PL 2021, c. 41, §1 (AMD).]

4. Redemption; balance in cash. If a stored-value obligation is redeemed in person and a balance of less than $5 remains following redemption, at the consumer's request the merchant redeeming the stored-value obligation must refund the balance in cash to the consumer. This subsection does not apply to a stored-value obligation with an initial value of $5 or less, or a stored-value obligation that is not purchased but provided as a promotion or as a refund for merchandise returned without a receipt.

[PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]
