The examination may include a review and assessment of property rights related to the ownership of groundwater, the various common law doctrines relating to groundwater and issues related to natural resources other than groundwater, as those subjects relate to or impact international trade agreement issues. The amendment requires the Water Resources Planning Committee, in coordination with the Office of the Attorney General and the Citizen Trade Policy Commission, to submit a report related to the review to the Joint Standing Committee on Natural Resources by January 1, 2010, and the committee is authorized to report out legislation to the Second Regular Session of the 124th Legislature.
