

§1131. Limitation on requests for certain types of identification

No person accepting a negotiable instrument as payment in full or in part for goods or services may require the payor to use a bank credit card as a form of identification if the payor does not possess a bank credit card. This section does not limit the other reasonable forms of identification a payee may require before accepting a negotiable instrument. [PL 1987, c. 244 (NEW).]
