

§2-602. Manner and effect of rightful rejection

- (1). Rejection of goods must be within a reasonable time after their delivery or tender. It is ineffective unless the buyer seasonably notifies the seller.
- (2). Subject to the provisions of sections 2-603 and 2-604 on rejected goods,
 - (a). After rejection any exercise of ownership by the buyer with respect to any commercial unit is wrongful as against the seller; and
 - (b). If the buyer has before rejection taken physical possession of goods in which he does not have a security interest under the provisions of this Article (section 2-711, subsection (3)), he is under a duty after rejection to hold them with reasonable care at the seller's disposition for a time sufficient to permit the seller to remove them; but
 - (c). The buyer has no further obligations with regard to goods rightfully rejected.
- (3). The seller's rights with respect to goods wrongfully rejected are governed by the provisions of this Article on seller's remedies in general (section 2-703).
