

§1094-A. Improper contact after bail has been revoked and denied

A person is guilty of improper contact after bail has been revoked and denied if, while being detained as a result of the person's preconviction or post-conviction bail having been revoked and denied, the person intentionally or knowingly makes direct or indirect contact with a person when that contact was prohibited under a former condition of release. Violation of this section is a Class D crime. [PL 2011, c. 604, §1 (NEW).]
